

AGP or Ambulatory Glucose Profile refers to a method of monitoring your blood sugar values for 14 days and almost 24 hours a day with 100 readings on average per day.

All this without getting any pricks!

Advantages are as follow:

1. It will help to identify glycemic pattern in early stages
2. Get Complete Story of Daily Glucose control
3. Food Detective - Food Consumption Pattern and Diet change
4. Best possible treatment adjustments can be made
5. It will ensure increased treatment Satisfaction and Adherence
6. It can Improve overall Quality of Life

Contact your Doctor to Aarambh your AGP for knowing your Daily Glucose Pattern

Though initially it may look difficult but this is a new way of life which is Safe, Simple and Successful-way to manage diabetes well.